The lifts will be raising Hacienda's annual holiday decorations this Friday, November 22, 2013. Continuing a fine tradition, the installation will be done once again by long-standing Pleasanton business, T. Marshall Electric, who has performed this work for Hacienda for well over a decade. The installations will begin early in the morning and will continue through the weekend, weather permitting.

"We are excited to help bring a festive look to North Pleasanton and to join in with the community in celebrating the season." said James Paxson, Hacienda's general manager. "Pleasanton has many wonderful seasonal traditions and we enjoy being a part those each year."
