Arc of Alameda County holds it's first ever fashion show and art exhibit

The Arc of Alameda County holds it's first ever fashion show and art exhibit on Sunday afternoon April 15th at the Sequoyah Country Club in Oakland. Called "Expressions – A Fashion and Art Showcase, the event features The Arc's developmentally disabled clients as models and artists.

Fashions are being designed by students in the Fashion Design and Alternative Bodies classes at the California College of the Arts. Paintings, drawings and other artwork created by some of The Arc's 600 clients will be on display and for sale at a silent auction.

California Senate Majority Leader Ellen Corbett (D – San Leandro) is the honorary host of the event and will be part of the program. Tickets are $50 and may be purchased on line at www.arcalameda.org/fashionadmission.html.

The Arc of Alameda County is a 501(C)(3) nonprofit that provides life skills education and vocational training to adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities at four locations: Livermore, Union City, Hayward and San Leandro. It also provides early intervention services to preschool children with developmental delays at its First Step Children's Center in Hayward.

Local Printer Honored for Sales Growth

Les Jacob and Leon Gundersen, Select Imaging, Dublin, CA, have been honored for their company's sales growth by CPrint® International during the bi-annual board meeting in Oakland, CA. CPrint® awards printers who have demonstrated a significant sales growth over the past year.

According to Todd Nuckols, CPrint® president, Select Imaging is among an elite group of companies who are seeing sales increases in the slow economy. "Select Imaging is focusing on principles and practices geared to exceptional customer service," said Nuckols. "This effort is resulting in increased sales even in a time of an economic slowdown. A company who can achieve growth in these times can only achieve it by being the best print provider for its business customers."

CPrint® International is an organization of independently owned family-based businesses that strive for professionalism and performance among small business that commonly lack highly developed systems and leadership. Companies from throughout North America participate in the program.

Select Imaging is the only printer in Dublin that qualified for the prestigious CPrint® designation. CPrint® is available only to printers who demonstrate exceptional quality and service by maintaining standards in operations, training, equipment and software as well as worker benefits and working conditions. This program requires annual onsite recertification as well as participation in continuing educational programs.

Select Imaging is located at 6398 Dougherty Road, Suite 27, Dublin, CA 94568. For more information about the company, call 925-803-1210, e-mail les@selectimaging.com, or visit the company's website at www.selectimaging.com.

JUANITA HAUGEN COMMUNITY OF CHARACTER AWARD ANNOUNCED – APRIL 16 DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSIONS; WINNERS TO BE HONORED AT MAY 9 AWARDS LUNCHEON

The Pleasanton Community of Character Collaborative is pleased to announce it is soliciting nominations for the 2012 Juanita Haugen Community of Character Award. The Juanita Haugen Community of Character Award was established in 2008 to recognize Pleasanton citizens who are dedicated volunteers and consistently model high ethical and moral standards of behavior advocated by the Collaborative: Responsibility, Compassion, Self-Discipline, Honesty, Respect and Integrity.

The award is named in honor of longtime Pleasanton Unified School District Board Member and community volunteer, Juanita Haugen. Haugen, co-founder of the Pleasanton Community of Character program, believed
