

Fresh and homemade at Sweet and Savory

This April, Sweet and Savory will be celebrating 23 years in business. What began in 1993 with a small 1,100-square foot shop has now grown into the spacious and warm surroundings of the current site with around 4,000-square feet.

"Our primary goal has always been to serve the business community," said owner Don Eichler. For nearly 25 years, Sweet and Savory has been providing the Hacienda Business Park with a fresh, home-made alternative to fast food.

Sweet and Savory, Café and Bakery offers breakfast and lunch items such as sandwiches on artisan-baked bread, salads, home-made soups, and delicious desserts, as well as customized catering services for your next planned office event.

"We are very attached to our regular guests, always happy to meet new ones and miss those who have moved on," said Susan Eichler, owner of Sweet and Savory. Noting the longevity of service from their employees, Eichler realizes the continuity in service goes a long way with their regular customers. Several Sweet and Savory employees have worked with them for over 10 years and one who has been there over 18 years.

Originally opened as a bakery serving some lunch items, Sweet and Savory soon discovered they needed more space and more breakfast and lunch items. In the mid-1990s when they opened, most of today's buildings were not constructed and there was open land across from them. In 2001, neighboring Domino's Pizza moved and Sweet and Savory expanded their business into that space.
